NO NATION ABLE TO PAY WHOLE WAR COST

BILLIONS IN REBATE

Statement Made in the Senate Causes Sensation About the Capitol

WILLIAMS REFUSES TO DISCUSS THE CHARGES
Belief Expressed Whiskey
Interests Will Get But One Million

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Charges in the Senate that prohibition will cost the government as high as $4-000,000,000 in refunds to the distilling interests for loss of their good will and property fairly staggered the internal revenue bureau today.
Revenue Commissioner Williams refused to discuss the effect of a ruling which senators say may be issued, which would reimburse the whiskey interests in amount practically equal to the whole government annual revenue.

The only admission either Williams or others expressed willingness to make was that whatever refund might be authorized under treasury rulings to the whiskey interests probably would not exceed $1,000,000.

MEMORIAL PLANNED
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Establishment of educational scholarships in the various states "in memory of American soldiers, sailors and marines who gave their lives" is provided by a bill introduced in the Senate today by Senator Trammell, Democrat of Florida.

BILL REPORTED
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The House interstate and foreign commerce committee reported favorably a bill, amending the Clayton anti-trust law, by striking from it the provision that prevents railroads from buying freely its needed equipment and supplies from any supply concern with which it desires to deal.

The existing law prevents railroads from buying such supplies from concerns in which there are interlocking railroad financial interests and requires such supplies to be bought from the lowest bidder after advertisement.

HAMILTON READY
FOR THE OPENING
OF STEPHENS TRIAL

(International News Service)
HAMILTON, Ala., Feb. 18.—All arrangements are complete for the start of the trial on Monday of Sergeant Glenn R. Stephens, charged with the murder of William Baird, miner, who was taken from jail at Jasper and shot to death.

Sheriff Couch is prepared to report service on practically every man whose name was drawn out of the jury box last week to serve on the regular week's panel and as special jurors in the Stephens case.

Attorneys for the defense were in conference in Birmingham Thursday evening and Friday morning outlining their case. The state will have a larger number of witnesses at the trial of Sergeant Stephens than were brought here for the Lancaster case.

It is understood the grand jury session in Jasper this week produced much information that will be used in next week's trial and that upwards of 100 witnesses will be brought here.

Senator Hiram Johnson has introduced a resolution calling for a senate investigation of the "invasion" of Haiti by the United States. The photograph shows an outpost of American marines in the hills of the island republic.

Extra! Police Now Have Phone All Their Own, To Get Cop Just Call 325

The Albany police now have a telephone all of their own and citizens wishing the services of a cop or representatives of the sanitary department today were requested to call Albany 325.

The installation of the new phone will relieve the city hall office of much superfluous work and will aid citizens in getting an officer more quickly when occasion demands.

Regular Army Needed to Stop the Smuggling of Booze Into America

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Let 'em smuggle the whiskey warehouses. That's the answer of the "wet" boys, the king pins of the bootleg "rings."

You don't need to go far from your own backlot to hear that answer. It's a familiar one, here, there and everywhere.

The "wet guys," as they are termed on the street curb or in the clubs, wherever "booze talk" is heard, now place their chief reliance upon the inability of the government enforcement machine to cope with smuggling.

Smugglers are bringing in millions of gallons of whiskey, wines and other choice liquors. And they are doing it with ease. They are doing it with the full knowledge of the government.
And the government's enforcement dent Wilson today received a letter in health by the President and outlining the plans of the President-elect for

Three Cases Typhus Are in Albany, N. Y.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Roused by the discovery of three cases of typhus fever in a family of Italian immigrants in Cortland, admitted January 5, through the port of New York, state health department officials today demanded of Federal and New York city plague quarantine officials what measures are contemplated to protect the people of the state against typhus fever.

Enrico Caruso Is Improving Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—For the first time since Enrico Caruso, world's famous tenor, suffered his critical re-lapse from pleurisy, doctors today definitely held out hopes for his ultimate recovery. The five physicians in attendance upon Caruso announced their patient was holding the improvement he made yesterday and there seems to be no danger of further relapse.

ALBANY TO SPEND $100,000

BIG SUM REMAINS TO BE EXPENDED
ON STREET WORK
BY MUNICIPALITY

Approximately $250,000 Already Paid For Improvement
of Thoroughfares

GOODRICH WILL HAVE CHARGE PART OF WORK
Operations Will be Resumed on Large Scale Early
This Spring

Within the next few months Albany will expend $100,000 for further street improvement, it was revealed today by figures on the status of the local paving situation. Approximately $250-000 already has been spent on the streets, but none have been entirely completed with the exception of Holly street, it was announced by city officials this morning. The council will meet next Tuesday night to formally accept the street and make the improvement assessments final.

Sixth avenue has been completed on some blocks and partially completed on others. Prospect drive and sections of First and Second avenue also have been partially completed. Several of the other thoroughfares, for improvement of which bonds already have been sold, will be rushed to completion as soon as weather permits.

Mr. Goodrich, who is well known here as having been in charge of the paving of many local streets in the earlier history of the Twin Cities, will be in charge of part of the work when the Leitch company resumes operations, it was stated.

Because of the character of the paying it is impossible to put down lasting improvements under adverse weather conditions, it was declared today, and for this reason the program is halted until spring opens and the weather conditions are more favorable.
The resumption of paving on a big scale will increase the monthly payroll here by nearly $40,000, it was believed. Between two and three months is expected to be required to complete the work already authorized.

JURY IN HILL CASE STILL DELIBERATES ON THE EVIDENCE

(International News Service)
TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Feb. 18.—The jury in the case of Ed Hill resumed its deliberations at 8:15 o'clock this morning and at last reports are still out.

Hill is charged with the murder of Deputy Earle Truitt in Walker county in May, 1919. The case was given to the jury at 11:15 o'clock Thursday night. The jury was recalled at midnight and allowed to go to bed to resume deliberations Friday morning. A rumor about the courthouse is that the jurors are tied up between the death penalty and a lesser sentence. Another rumor said that one or two of the jurors may possibly favor acquittal. Indications are the jury will be out for some hours.

The trial of Monroe Hill, father of Ed Hill, also charged with the murder of Truitt, is being held up pending the verdict in Ed Hill's case, which may possibly have some bearing upon the trial of the father.

Buttrey Reports Optimism North

J. A. Buttrey returned last night from an extensive buying trip to the North and East. "New York is filled with buyers," said Mr. Buttrey today.
"Business is getting better and optimism prevails. The showings in ladies' wear for spring are very beautiful indeed. I found the Hudson river frozen over, but while cold, the weather was fine and brisk."

OFFICERS FEAR HITE, WOUNDED, MAY BE DYING

Limestone county officials today renewed their search for Orian Hite, of near Mooresville, sought in connection with the slaying of Pewter Lewis, another resident of that neighborhood, who was killed Wednesday night. Chief Deputy Sheriff Strange, who participated in the search yesterday for Hite and the investigation made of the officers, advanced the fear that Hite might possibly be found dead in the woods near the scene. On the other hand, Deputy Strange said, the officers are taking precautions to guard against the man's escape if he is still living. It was not believed he could cross the Tennessee river because of the high water unless he reached the railroad bridge, which was not probable.

According to an interview given by Mr. Strange to The Daily over long distance telephone from Athens, a still was found in a house said to have been occupied by Hite. According to Mr.
Strange the outfit was located in the east end of the house while Hite occupied the west end.

"The still was known as the Pewter Lewis still and I have been at work on the case for several months, but had been unable to locate it because of it being in the house," said Deputy Strange.

According to the Limestone county officer, the outfit was very complete.
Deputy Strange was accompanied by Special Deputy James Clem from Athens and Special Deputy Mitchell from Bell Mina on his investigation Thursday.

The officers were said to have seized 21 barrels of malt and beer, two copper boilers and a quantity of whiskey.

"After the seizure of the still," the deputy continued, "we trailed Hite into the woods by blood stains which indicated he was wounded. We trailed him to a little house and later back into the woods, where the trail was lost. It is not likely that he has crossed the river. We expect to make one to three arrests in the case."

POSTOFFICE YEGGS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

(International News Service)
TOLEDO, O., Feb. 18.—There is absolutely no clue to the identity or whereabouts of the bandits who yesterday held up employees of the government at the postoffice here and escaped with eleven sacks of mail, six of which contained registered matter.
The exact amount of the loot has not yet been ascertained but it is believed to have been within $300,000 and $400,000. The thieves overlooked one sack of registered mail containing $150,000 in currency, consigned to a Toledo bank.

Contractors Will Meet Committee

with the finance committee of the Albany city council at 7:30 o'clock to-

POLITICAL ADVISERS URGE APPOINTMENT OF SOUTHERN MAN

(International News Service)
ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 18.— Charles E. Hughes will arrive in St.
Augustine late today for what probably will be a final conference with President-elect Harding before he becomes a member of his official family two weeks hence.

It is thought the foreign situation will be thoroughly gone into and in addition Justice Hughes' advice will be sought concerning the inaugural address and a few cabinet portfolios not now tentatively filled.

The refusal of Governor Frank O.
Lowden, of Illinois, to be considered for any place in the cabinet, has created still more uncertainty in the naval, commerce and labor posts. It has also increased the chances of Southern representatives in the cabinet, according to those about the President-elect.

The political advisers of Mr. Harding are insistently urging that for purely political reasons he recognizes the breaking of the solid South by awarding a cabinet post to a Southern man, but so far as can be learned here the President-elect has made no decision yet.

Various names have been offered
Mr. Harding, including former Senator Newman of Tennessee, H. C. Huston of Tennessee, A. T. Hurt of Kentucky, C. Blascamp Slomp of Virginia and John M. Moorehead of North Carolina.

peratures to the coast the first part of

BRITAIN'S PREMIER GIVES A CHALLENGE TO HIS ACCUSER TO COLLECT INDEMNITY

Replies to Sensational Statement of Horatio Bottomley, Member Parliament

LATTER DEMANDED THE
TRIAL OF EX-KAISER

Lloyd George Declares Impractical to Risk War With Holland at This Time

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 18.—It is impossible for any nation to pay the whole cost of the war, Premier Lloyd George declared today in a reply to a sensational statement issued by Horatio Bottomley, M. P. Mr. Bottomley had demanded the dissolution of parliament and the immediate trial of the ex-Kaiser.

Premier Lloyd George ridiculed Mr.
Bottomley's declaration and challenged him to collect the indemnity from Germany.

"If Mr. Bottomley should collect the German indemnity, I suppose he would bring us shiploads full of worthless marks," said the Premier.
"It is impossible for any nation to pay the cost of the war which we put at $100,000,000,000. Had England lost she could not have paid the bill in full."

The Premier said that England and France were agreed that it was not worth while to risk war with Holland to attempt to bring force to get the ex-Kaiser for trial.

store there in the near future.

The establishment will be known as "The Outlet" and will carry a handsome line of ladies' ready-to-wear and gentlemen's furnishings, it was stated.
Mr. Levin was here today making arrangements for the opening.

The members of the firm are well known business men of Vicksburg and much success is predicted for them in their new field.

THE RETURN OF PADEREWSKY

For five years the great Polish piano player, as Paderewsky was known before the great war, has practiced at the key board very little, and he stated when he landed at New York a few days ago, that he was never to appear in concert again though he might compose some music. The demand of his native country for a man, who could stand in the breach when the crash of empires threatened the very life of his people, had an appeal for the artist, greater than distinction and ease.

He went to Poland to staunch her wounds and bind up her broken heart. The continual conflict of German and Russian armies on Polish soil left that unhappy country almost more dead than alive. It fell to the lot of Paderewsky to be called to the Premiership of the new Poland, born after the great war.

He made a successful attempt to raise his country from a veritable mire of blood. It was a glorious achievement. But so strenuous were his labors that no doubt he is all but exhausted with the strain and responsibilities that came upon him. But he arose to the occasion. As do all great and worthy men, he attained fame through sacrifice of self for the good of others. It is said of him that in the years when the musical world was all but worshipping Paderewsky, that he claimed nothing then for himself, but every thing for his art. It was this habit of mind, the putting of results and accomplishments above his own personal interests, that stood him in such good stead, in the recent dark days for Poland, when freedom or slavery for millions depended on his loyal devotion to a great cause.

This Americanized Pole did not seek to serve himself, but his native country, and because of this, he returns to America as an uncrowned hero. This nation does not wish its foreign born citizen to think less of his native country, for there is patriotism enough in good men to share with all worthy countries. But no worthy American wishes those in this country of foreign birth, to have a double citizenship. The hyphen is very unpopular now, and will never be less so. But when it comes to parting with any of our people, who wish to return to Europe to fight for the freedom of their people, as did Paderewsky, such defenders of democracy will be wished goodspeed.

The contempt of Americans rests only on those who have been willing to aid autocratic oppressive governments abroad, and who for base motives have been willing to stir up race hatred and foolish class distinctions.

Paderewsky was guilty of no such little and low motives. He laid himself out for freedom and for the life of oppressed Poland. It is because he thus sought to serve humanity, that for all time, men will delight to honor Paderewsky, not as a prince among artists so much, but as the plain serious minded man, who put his life in the balance against those who would have destroyed his country, and the rights of free men everywhere.

POLICE FOR SMOOTH SURFACE ROADS

As the main roads of the state and county become thoroughly paved, so as to admit of more and faster traffic, the need of greater care on the part of drivers will become more apparent. People, as a rule, who are reliable and intelligent in most things are apt to be reckless when it comes to driving a high power machine, especially if the day is fine, and the roads are perfect. There is great danger of the new roads of the future becoming traps of death, unless adequate provision is made to protect the public from each other as they ride and drive upon them.

People who would scorn to take the advantage in a business deal, seem to have no hesitancy in speeding to the limit. The better the roads become, the higher the death rate will mount, unless all hands are more careful in the future. The reckless driver endangers himself least of all. He is often going at such a speed as to put those who are using the roads in a legitimate way to a great disadvantage. If it takes laws and enforcement officers to keep people from doing more repulsive wrongs, it stands to reason, that people will not refrain from as pleasant a pastime as "speeding" unless the stern arm of the law is invoked.

A statute framed to read something like the following, and then rigidly enforced, would soon put a stop to the abuse reckless drivers make of good roads. "The police power of the state shall have the power to regulate the traffic and police the state highways, against their abuse by individuals or corporations, heavy trucks, heavy tractors, and all destructive machines and vehicles." Such a law should have reference both to the protection of the roads and the saving of the lives of those who ride on them. It would doubtless become necessary to employ a few motorcycle policemen in each county to constantly patrol the most used thoroughfares, and to arrest all who exceeded the speed limit or otherwise behaved in a careless manner.

While such a system would cost considerable, in the long run it would save enough property and lives to pay for itself many times over. It will take a thorough business like system to accomplish any thing of value in this line. Spasmodic enforcement of the laws against any abuse is worth but little, and especially will it take vigilance to prevent a yielding to the temptation to go the limit on a good hard road, when the weather is fine, and the juice and engine are working perfectly.

KIWANIS COMMEMENDED

One of our most prominent men said last night, a guest at the first anniversary dining, after looking over the members of the Kiwanis club: "This lot of young, alert men can put over anything in this community." The membership of the organization appreciate such an opinion, especially coming from the source. It is deserved by Kiwanis, as this club supplies in American life a place distinctively its own. Taboing politics and sectarianism, Kiwanis principals are unselfish, endeavoring to do good and bring into full fruition the brotherhood of man. Fellowship and good cheer is the atmosphere pervading.

COUNTY TOWN HINTS

No matter how much is done to improve a town with substantial construction, repairs, street and sidewalk building etc., your home place will look seedy unless you have some scheme for keeping it neat.

There are many people who on visiting a town always buy chewing gum, candy, fruit and other small eatables. This stuff is sold in small bags and fancy wrappers. The majority of people, on eating their candy or popcorn, will throw away the bag into the street. As this stuff collects it gives a place a miserably untidy appearance.

Litter comes from other sources. Some of it drops out of trucks and wagons. Some merchants allow their help to throw sweepings out on the sidewalks, or else out of the back door, whence the wind may blow it into the street.

In many places they do something to remedy that condition by having waste paper cans placed along the streets. It is a good scheme. But some times merchants will fill these cans with sweepings from their store, so they will hold nothing else.

People should be just as much ashamed to litter the streets of their town, as they would be to allow waste paper to collect on their parlor floor at home. Children should be taught in school never to do this thing. But even with all the instructions possible, there will always be a few rowdies who will form this course of habit. The live town must always spend some money in having litter collected off the streets. Couldn't Moulton adopt some scheme by which we might improve the looks of our streets.—Moulton Advertiser.

AMERICAN QUILTS
REPARATION UNIT;
NATION PUZZLED

(International News Service)

PARIS, Feb. 18.—Captain Boyden resigned this afternoon as the American representative on the reparations commission. The commission held a meeting during the afternoon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Under Secretary of State Davis this afternoon stated no instructions had been given to Captain Boyden to withdraw. The under-secretary said the State Department has under consideration such action, but that no definite decision had been reached. The War Department announced the American Army of Occupation is being gradually reduced in accordance with the announced policy of sending no replacements as enlistments expire.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—An unconfirmed report was current here today that the American forces of occupation on the Rhine may soon be withdrawn. The press prints a dispatch saying the American representative on the reparations commission has been recalled.

TYPHUS SITUATION
NOT 'WELL IN HAND'

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—"The country is getting absolutely no protection against the influx of typhus carriers at the port of New York except that accorded by city health officials," Dr. Royal S. Copeland, city health commissioner, declared this afternoon.

When told that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Laporte has stated that "the typhus situation appears to be well in hand," Dr. Copeland exclaimed: "Like hell it is."

Commenting upon discovery of three typhus cases at Cortland, N. Y., Dr. Copeland expressed the belief these resulted from immigrants being landed at Hoboken, N. J., where they evaded his inspectors' examination.

COTTON MARKET SHOWS A DECLINE

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The cotton market opened at a decline of from 2 to 16 points today under selling from Wall street and local and Southern sources. The latter was unusually heavy. Liverpool cables were hardly up to expectations and Liverpool was a seller of the near positions here. Commission house liquidation was a feature. The market during the early trading showed little rallying power, notwithstanding considerably short covering and trade demands.

Car Department Defeats B. M. Team

The Car Department defeated the Albany Business Men in an unusual game in last night's "Y" bowling tournament. By agreement the Car Department counted the scores of only four men in the individual games, in order to aid the B. M. who lacked one bowler of having a full team. The scores of all five, however, were counted in the total number of pins upon which the cup will be awarded.

The Car Department won on total pins and the Business Men in individual games.

The scores follow:

Brenlin
the long-wearing window shade material

Be sure the window shades you buy won't crack and break!

Ordinary window shade material is made of coarse muslin which is filled with chalk and clay. The wear of daily usage causes this filling to loosen and fall out, leaving the shade full of cracks and pinholes.

But Brenlin wears and wears.

Brenlin is made of fine, closely woven cloth which contains not a particle of chalk, or clay, or other filling.

It wears and wears. Hangs smooth and straight. No cracks, no pinholes deface it!

Tinted with the finest, fast colors Brenlin Window Shades will not spot in the rain nor fade in the sun. They wear three times as long as ordinary shades.

Come in and see the many rich colorings we have in this long-wearing shade material. Let us show you how little it will cost to shade your windows with Brenlin, and help you select just the tone that will harmonize with the color scheme of your room. Come today.

Railroad Briefs About Town

More and more the excellent records made by the hundreds of men in the shops in the "every day of the year" drive against accidents is being attributed to their habit of reading and digesting the "Safety First" arguments as "handed out" by Chairman Matthews' committee. The latest is a story of a circular saw as slick as a phonograph record and beginning with the time-honored words, "Once upon a time." The "true" story is as follows:

Once upon a time there was a circular saw which was very dull. The workman who used the saw was also dull or he would have asked to have it sharpened. The foreman was dull because he did not instruct the workman. The superintendent was dull because he did not get after the foreman. It was quite a dull outfit all around.

The saw also did not have much set. But the workman and the foreman were very set. In fact they were set. They knew all about saws and no dingsized son-of-a-prairie-dog safety inspector could tell them anything. Not by a damn site.

The saw was so dull that when the workman pushed a plank through it was like pushing a lawn mower through a hay field. But he didn't care—he was working by the day. And the foreman thought that the more the men sweat the better boss he was.

So the workman kept on pushing. He pushed so hard that once in a while he slipped and cut his hand. Once he cut off part of a finger. He hung around the house for a month till it got well, while his wife stood off

ON THE JOB EVERY DAY

Red-Blooded Men and Women Are Seldom Sick.

WATCH YOUR BLOOD CONDITION

If You Look Pale, Feel Gloomy and Run-down, Take Pepto-Mangan and Build Up

You see men and women who are never sick. They work hard, look robust, eat heartily and enjoy life. They have plenty of rich, red blood. That is why they are never ill.

People who try to get along with weak, impoverished blood always have a struggle. They go from one sickness to another. Children the same way.

If you keep your blood rich and red you'll enjoy full vigor. Disease has little chance to develop in healthy blood. As soon as you feel run-down take Pepto-Mangan for a while. It will feed your blood with the ingredients needed to create a good supply of red corpuscles.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer. They are alike in medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package.—Adv.

the grocer and the landlord. Afterward he displayed the stump as if it had been a lodge button. The poor nut didn't know that a man minus fingers is sometimes minus brains.

One day when the dull saw had no set left at all, it kicked back—as even a patient mule will do if you crowd him too hard. A short block hit the man like Babe Ruth hits the ball and knocked him for a row of brick dog-houses. After sailing around the starry skies for a while he came to in the hospital and heard the doctor say: "Fortunately it hit him in the head where it couldn't do much damage."

When the superintendent saw the saw, which had about as much cutting edge as a phonograph record, he also "came to." What he said to the foreman will never be printed in the Ladies' Home Journal. The last words were (in substance):

"Get it filed and get—see? Before tomorrow—see? And if you ain't got a man that knows how to file a saw right, GET ONE—SEE?"

A week later the foreman said to the super:

"Funny thing about that saw. Since we had it sharpened we get out 50 per cent more work, even with a green man."

(Moral: It takes a lot to wake some people up.)

The southbound train from Chicago and other northern points deposited here four general chairmen of Louisville and Nashville shop crafts yesterday afternoon: S. E. Roper, sheet metal and general system chairman; J. D. Bristol, machinists' chairman; P. J. Monnyhan, blacksmiths and helpers' chairman, and H. H. Holliday, boiler-makers' chairman.

Last night these union officials held a number of informal conferences. The question uppermost, of course, was the proceedings now before the National Wage Board at Chicago, where three men representing the public, three for the railroad employees and three for the railroad management, have under consideration endless questions in regard to railroads. All of the men had been before the wage board off and on for the last few months, and doubtless knew much more interesting data than they were willing to part with, but they said a few things for all hands to hear.

Said Mr. Monnyhan, the dean of the "lunch" in point of age and experience: "We railroaders are determined on the national agreement. It is sacred, very sacred to us. It is like a Bible to us." Mr. Monnyhan expressed confidence in the common belief, namely, that the agreement will be continued for an indefinite period.

Jos. D. Bristol, machinists' chairman, expressed himself after the same fashion as Mr. Monnyhan. Said Mr. Holliday: "I think I am safe in saying that we are sure to retain the national agreement."

Asked to comment on The Daily's dispatch of yesterday afternoon, quoting B. M. Jewell, president of the employees' department of Railroad Employees, in which Mr. Jewell declared for an immediate conference between railroad managers and representatives of employees to settle the wage question, Mr. Monnyhan said that he preferred to have fuller information before making a statement.

Speaking about hold-ups, John K. Walsh told the following story: "Two Irishmen decided to resort to highway robbery. They ran up with 'Jerry,' a Scotchman, and the two of them after a desperate fight knocked the Scotchman unconscious, only to find the small sum of sixpence on him. 'By faith, Mike,' declared Pat, 'if the bloody Scotchman had had a shilling he would have killed us both.' When all got to holding on to their money like Jerry did, robbers will indeed be worsted," concluded Mr. Walsh.

"How men take counsel of their fears," said L. Sentiff, a freight conductor as far back as 1879, but now a watchman near the switch tracks, "was made clear to me when I worked up on the Wabash, Chester and Winchester. The engineers were afraid flange oil, now universally used to keep down wear on driving wheel flanges and the tracks, would cause their engines to jump the tracks. So many of them did all they could against its introduction. Now every engine is equipped with cups filled with oil so it will feed down on the flanges. It is next to impossible to get an engine to leave the track, barring some defect."

Robert Bradman and W. N. Thomas were off Thursday on a trip up the road.

Charles Frohoff, until recently employed in the machine shop, has removed to the family plantation at Hanceville, where he and his brother, Frank W. Frohoff, will operate their sawmill and farm their lands. Mr. Frohoff expressed confidence in the report that the lumber market was improving.

Earle Nelson, former machinist, was here for a visit before accepting employment with the Norfolk and Western railroad. He was until last week employed by the Baltimore and Ohio at Monroe, La. "We did not have a regular lay-off," said Mr. Nelson, "but as I was only substituting, was allowed to go. There are plenty of jobs, but of course one has to go to them, they will not seek you, now."

Junius Martin, an old employe in 1893, but now a boilermaker in Selma, recently paid the shops a visit. It was stated that Mr. Martin knew only four persons now at work here, owing to his long absence.

Growing Plants on Sponge.
An interesting experiment is the growing of plants on an old sponge. Procure an old sponge and, after soaking it in water, sprinkle in the holes a mixture of cress, radish, wheat and grass or flax seeds. Now suspend this sponge in the window of a light and warm room. Very soon the seeds germinate and in a week or two the entire sponge will be clothed with a mass of beautiful foliage. The sponge must be kept moist.

The motto of the Prince of Wales, Fall River, Massachusetts, has a drop of 120 feet in less than half a mile, affording excellent water power.

Said Can't Be Done

"My experience with doctors and medicines caused me to lose faith in both, and when a friend told me that May's Wonderful Remedy would cure my stomach trouble I told him 'it can't be done.' However, he finally persuaded me to try it and to my surprise it did. All symptoms of acute indigestion and gas having disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. S. M. Thompson in Albany, Owl Drug Co. in Decatur, and druggists everywhere.

KIWANIS OBSERVE THEIR ANNIVERSARY WITH BIG BANQUET

The Morgan Kiwanis Club celebrated its first anniversary last evening with a dinner at the Lyons hotel. All matters of business were placed on the shelf and the entire evening was given over to pleasure and good fellowship.

As a special feature, dainty Miss Kathryn Davis delighted all with her clever specialty dances and earned well deserved applause that was generously given. Mrs. McNeill always pleases, and her offerings last evening were no exception. Through the kindness of Zeigfeld, Mrs. McNeill and her side-kick, "Rattle Brains" were released as a special accommodation to the Morgan Kiwanis Club. Mrs. Herbert Odom presided at the piano.

The club entertained as its guests M. M. Stripling, a well known cotton merchant of Florence; J. W. Waller and the Hon. M. L. Robertson, mayor of Cullman. Among the local guests were John D. Wyker, Hon. S. A. Lynn and W. W. Rahm.

Will Rheumatism Again*Bind Your Hand and Foot?

If you had Rheumatism last year and treated only the pains of the disease by rubbing with liniments and lotions, you can be sure that soon again you will be in the shackles of this relentless foe. You may get some slight temporary relief from the pains of the disease by the use of these local remedies, but Rheumatism is too real and relentless a disease to be rubbed away. So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny germ in the blood, that you should try a remedy that has proven so thoroughly satisfactory in these cases. S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy cleanses the blood of all impurities, and removes all disease germs that may creep into the blood. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. ### Self Rising Flour that you can depend on

WE won't give in to the temptation which confronts millers today to cheapen quality so that price may be lowered. Valier's Picnic Self Rising Flour always has been and always will be milled from nothing but the choicest soft winter wheat—the same from which Valier's Dainty Flour is milled.

We believe that you want economical self rising flour, not "cheap" self rising flour—and there's a big difference. The cost of using a flour and not the cost of buying it is the real measure of its economy.

Try a sack of Valier's Picnic Self Rising Flour. Unusually delicious, wholesome baking will not be the only reward for your good judgment. Its high and never-changing quality will save you many a costly failure.
